Summary of CV

This section describes briefly a summary of your career in science, academic and research; the main scientific and technological achievements and goals in your line of research in the medium -and long- term. It also includes other important aspects or peculiarities.

I am Ramón y Cajal researcher, started after the completion of a FCT postdoctoral contract at the ICS (University of Lisbon) and a Contrato de Formación Postdoctoral 2013 (JdC in 2013) ending in 2015. I have two PhDs in History (León University, 2013) and Heritage Studies and Archaeology (Cambridge University, 2016), an MPhil in Heritage Studies and Museums (Cambridge University, 2012), and a 5-year BA in History (León University, 2008).

I work in the multidisciplinary field of heritage studies, at the crossroads between anthropology, sociology, cultural studies and history. My research explores the intersection between heritage and society in five main lines strands: 1) Heritage, cultural history and nation-building in Cuba; 2) Agrarian history, commons and communities in northwest Spain; 3) Heritage, public archaeology and critical heritage studies; 4) Heritage and spatial planning; 5) Food as heritage, particularly wine.

I present a multidisciplinary publication record as principal investigator, with 2 edited books and 8 research monographs published with commercial and university presses, including CSIC, University Press of Florida, Universidad de León and Cambridge Scholars Press. I have published 5 book reviews, 4 book chapters, and 48 papers in top-ranked journals, including 31 Scopus-indexed (21 Q1) and 26 ISI-indexed (6 Q1).

I am accredited as Contratado Doctor by ANECA and have broad international teaching experience in fifteen universities in Europe, Russia and Latin America, where I have been invited to organize scientific seminars and give talks for years, currently supervising two PhD and one MPhil students. I have organized and presented research in more than 50 congresses. I am currently PI of a project at the University of Magdalena (Colombia), endowed with 20,000€ and lasting one year. I have participated in five Spanish competitive national research projects, one CYTED Iberoamerican project, and two EU projects (NEARCH and CRIC). Finally, my artistic and science outreach activities in audio-visual production have allowed me to raise funding reaching 150,000€.
